Submission of [REDACTED] Resume for Pre-Publication Review

[REDACTED]

Sent: Tuesday, April 03, 2012 1:21 PM

To: FBI.PREPUB

Attachments: [REDACTED] Resume.doc (37 KB)

To Whom It May Concern,

I am looking to receive approval on my resume from the FBI's pre-publication review. Per conversation with [REDACTED] [REDACTED] I have already received approval from the other agency mentioned in my resume. If at your earliest convenience, any notification of approval or denial via both email and a letter sent (if approved) to my residence below or Bureau mail would be greatly appreciated. When I had an older resume approved, I had received a letter for my own records. I look forward to hearing from you.

Classification: UNCLASSIFIED

Dear [redacted]
Per response from [redacted] I was told that you now have responsibilities centered around the pre-publication review of resumes. At your earliest convenience, could you help me address the below concern? Thanks.

b6 -2

I am looking to update my resume but include a little more detail. My initial resume was approved by the FBI in July 2010. I am [redacted] It seems that I lack the appropriate timing on doing this because I received another email (via FBI net) that positions in which I am looking to apply for on USAjobs.gov will be available from April 4, 2011- April 11, 2011. Due to the complexities of having to get one's resume approved by two agencies ([redacted] and FBI), is there a way I can coordinate this task to possibly ensure a more quick turn around? To possibly help mitigate the issue, I have already been able to upload my resume on to [redacted] and could forward it to you [redacted] if you wanted? Please advise at your earliest convenience how I might be able to make this easier. Thanks.

Hi [REDACTED]

Long time no chat. I hope all is going well for you in the new year.

I have a small piece here for your review that should be pretty easy. It is related to my book that was published and you reviewed. It is a simple release / bit of information about the book that is a descriptor of the book and me. It is exactly the same content and doesn't overplay FBI, etc.

Please let me know via email again if you would please once you have the opportunity to review it.

It is short so I am just cut and pasting it here. Please let me know if you would like it as a separate document as well.

Thanks as always my friend, you have been a tremendous help,

Best wishes and thanks,
Robin

Hi

b6 -2

I hope your weekend was good. I have a few more items for you to review for disclosure. These are very similar to the book proposal I sent earlier and you approved (thank you) These are essentially lesson plans for teaching the content of the book to outside organizations. I have outside employment authorization already, but just wanted to check all the blocks by having you review as well.

Thanks again

Hi [REDACTED]

b6 -2

Thanks for taking the time for the quick chat.

Attached is my book proposal that I would like to submit. All the content is based upon my years of experience both pre-bu and bu. Most of the content has nothing to do with my Bu work, but I have been able to utilize it here as well. The book is really leadership and relationship focused with some light anecdotes from all aspects of my life to illustrate points.

Thanks again and please let me know if anything requires any more clarification.

Warmest wishes

Sent: Monday, March 19, 2012 6:31 AMSubject: FBI Prepublication information

Daniel and Patrick,

Good Morning. I received your letter regarding the book you wish to write. If you are going to use a co-author who is not a bureau employee, when providing information to this person, please remember the following areas are prohibited from disclosure:

- Information protected by the Privacy Act of 1974, as amended.
- Information that is classified, or the disclosure of which could harm national security.
- Information that reveals sensitive law enforcement, intelligence, counter intelligence, or counter terrorism techniques, sources, or methods of the FBI or any other governmental entity.
- Information that would reveal grand jury material protected from disclosure by Rule 6(e) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure.
- Information that would tend to reveal the identity of a confidential source or the identity of a government agency or authority or private institution which furnished information on a confidential basis.
- Information that relates to any sensitive operational details or the substantive merits of any ongoing or open investigation or case.
- Property information and trade secrets.
- Information pertaining to contractor bids or proposals or source-selection information before the award of the related procurement contract.

PREPUB-7652

[REDACTED] 3/27/2012 b7E -4

- Information pertaining to wiretaps or intercepts, electronic communications (including storage mechanisms) or foreign intelligence protected or regulated by Title III (18, U.S.C. §§ 2510-2520) or F.I.S.A. (50, U.S.C. § 1801-1862);
- Information pertaining to currency transaction reports regulated or protected by 31 U.S.C. §§ 5313 - 5319;
- Tax return information regulated or protected by 26 U.S.C. § 6103;
- and any other information the disclosure of which is prohibited by law, Executive Order, or regulation.

You must also provide a clear statement that the views expressed are yours and not those of the FBI.

In Addition, here are some other tips which may help.

1. Information that is public source, i.e. in media or court records will be approved. Information not public is where we will focus.
2. Informant information or identities, and relationships to ongoing or potential investigations will receive the closest scrutiny.
3. We will ask that you get permission or use pseudonyms for any law enforcement names.
4. Get the information cleared before you tell it to your co author. This doesn't have to be in literary form.
5. This will probably require additional review by CID or Chicago Field Office.
6. Don't make a book deal or publications deadline prior to our approval. This could be a very costly mistake.
7. We are eager to work with you as you arrange and craft your work.

I hope this information helps. Feel free to contact me if you have any further questions.

[REDACTED] The syllabus is approved by prepublication review. We'll forward a letter tomorrow. As the lesson plans are built around public source materials, you do not have to submit the individual lesson plans. Some cautions, you should ensure that you do not affirm any sensitive FBI information that has been reported in the press, but not officially acknowledged by the FBI. Some other points probably already covered by [REDACTED] You may disclose your position with the FBI so long as it is not emphasized beyond normal biographic information. If your position at the FBI is disclosed, you must disclaim that any opinions, statements of policy, etc, are yours and not those of the FBI. david
